

How to Find Full-Text Articles

User Guide

Centennial Library

Cedarville University

When you have a citation to a journal article, how do you find the full-text article?

Option 1: Library Catalog

A. From the library catalog do a title search for the title of the needed journal or magazine.

B. Click the title of needed journal or magazine.

C. Electronic copy

1. Click on year of the article in Connect to box.

2. Scroll down to needed year, volume, and pages.

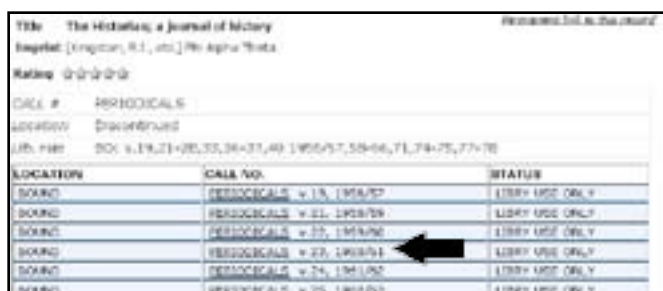

3. Search or scroll down and click the needed article title.

4. To access a copy of the article, click on the Full Text link.

D. Paper copy

1. In the library catalog, scroll down the list to see if the library has volume/year of the needed article.

2. Location indicates if needed volume/year is in the paper, bound or microform collections.

3. Find print copy in the library.

Option 2: Find E-Journals (if not in the library catalog)

- A. From the library website, click Journals and type the Journal title in the box and click Search. (For off campus access, click Remote Access)

- B. Click the database with the date.

- C. Click the year/issue/pages.

- D. Scroll down to find the title of the article.

- E. To access a copy of the article, click on the Full Text link.

Option 3: Internet Search Engine (if not in Find E-Journals)

- A. Type article title in search box.

Hint: Type "physicians and the pharmaceutical industry" for article entitled "Physicians and the pharmaceutical industry: is a gift ever just a gift?"

- B. Click the Search button.

- C. Scroll down and click the title of the article.

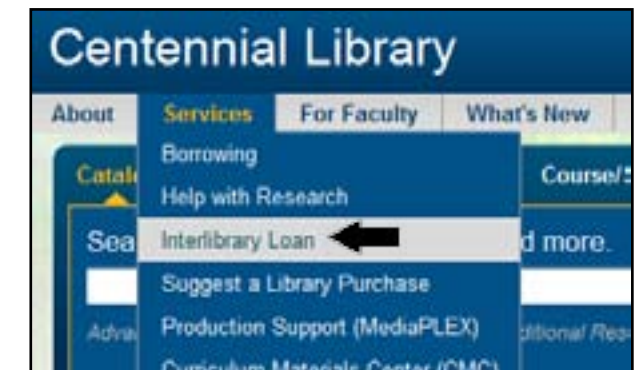

- D. To access a PDF copy of the article, click on the Full Text (PDF) link.

Option 4: Interlibrary Loan (if article is not available full-text)

- A. Click Interlibrary Loan under Services on the library website.

- B. Click Periodical Request form.

- C. Complete the form.

- D. Click Submit (bottom of the page).

