

2 HEART

SPOTLIGHT ON: Grace Community Church

This week represents the last Heart2Heart article in our series about local church ministries. I was able to interview Drew Brown, a sophomore at Cedarville, about his team's ministry at Grace Community Church in Washington Court House. Grace Community is Drew's home church, and he has been attending there since he was in second grade. He says one of the things that he enjoys most about ministering at Grace Community through Cedarville is, "getting to see all of my relatively new Cedarville friends interact with people I've known almost all my life."

The Cedarville team to Grace Community is involved in a lot of different aspects at the church. On Sunday mornings, Cedarville students are involved with everything from teaching Sunday School to working with the technical team to helping lead music. On Sunday evenings, Cedarville volunteers help the youth pastor lead the junior and high school ministries. One of the ministries that Drew is most passionate about is the Tuesday night AWANA ministry at Grace.

He praises the Cedarville team, calling them "highly energetic." When asked about his favorite memory, Drew admits that every week is a new favorite for him. Every week he has the chance to "help the friends I love find fellowship and support from a welcoming local church."

"I ENJOY GETTING TO SEE MY CEDARVILLE FRIENDS INTERACT WITH PEOPLE I'VE KNOWN ALMOST ALL MY LIFE."
DREW BROWN

Drew says that he has no doubt that God is working at Grace Community. He says that he loves to see God move when the congregation, acting as the body of Christ, reaches out to members who are in need. This is just one of the ways that Drew sees God's love pour from the members of Grace Community.

When I asked Drew how the student body at Cedarville could help this ministry, he said that the team always needs more people for Sunday School, and Grace would also like more volunteers to help with the Upper Room Cafe that just opened at their church. For more information on this church ministry, contact Drew Brown or visit them on the web at www.gracecommunity.net.

2 HEART

SPOTLIGHT ON: Grace Community Church

This week represents the last Heart2Heart article in our series about local church ministries. I was able to interview Drew Brown, a sophomore at Cedarville, about his team's ministry at Grace Community Church in Washington Court House. Grace Community is Drew's home church, and he has been attending there since he was in second grade. He says one of the things that he enjoys most about ministering at Grace Community through Cedarville is, "getting to see all of my relatively new Cedarville friends interact with people I've known almost all my life."

The Cedarville team to Grace Community is involved in a lot of different aspects at the church. On Sunday mornings, Cedarville students are involved with everything from teaching Sunday School to working with the technical team to helping lead music. On Sunday evenings, Cedarville volunteers help the youth pastor lead the junior and high school ministries. One of the ministries that Drew is most passionate about is the Tuesday night AWANA ministry at Grace.

He praises the Cedarville team, calling them "highly energetic." When asked about his favorite memory, Drew admits that every week is a new favorite for him. Every week he has the chance to "help the friends I love find fellowship and support from a welcoming local church."

"I ENJOY GETTING TO SEE MY CEDARVILLE FRIENDS INTERACT WITH PEOPLE I'VE KNOWN ALMOST ALL MY LIFE."
DREW BROWN

Drew says that he has no doubt that God is working at Grace Community. He says that he loves to see God move when the congregation, acting as the body of Christ, reaches out to members who are in need. This is just one of the ways that Drew sees God's love pour from the members of Grace Community.

When I asked Drew how the student body at Cedarville could help this ministry, he said that the team always needs more people for Sunday School, and Grace would also like more volunteers to help with the Upper Room Cafe that just opened at their church. For more information on this church ministry, contact Drew Brown or visit them on the web at www.gracecommunity.net.

MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES

The Riding Centre is still looking for students to help with therapeutic horseback riding lessons weekday mornings, especially Wednesdays & Fridays (10-11:30am). This is not a highly time consuming ministry, and there are still quite a few spots to fill on the team, so if you're interested in this ministry, contact team leader Kelly Elshoff.

Grace Community Church needs one guy to help out on Tuesday night with AWANA. Contact student leader Drew Brown for more details.

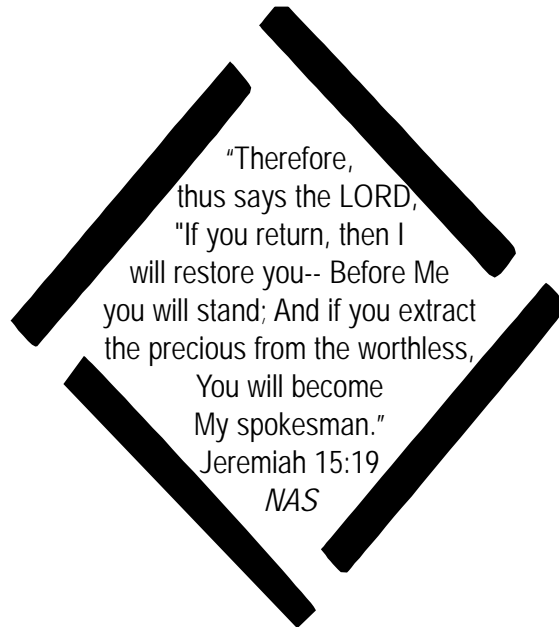

The Nehemiah Chapel in Dayton is looking for a guitar player to help lead Sunday morning worship. For more information, contact team leader Becky Lescure.

Outlook Pointe in Xenia needs someone to help lead their Sunday service two or three Sundays a month. This service reaches senior citizens for the most part, and can include prayer, Bible study, group discussion, and music.

Featured Resource:

Leadership Resources

This month the featured ministry resources from the Christian Ministries Resource Library are the selection of leadership tools available to borrow. These tools include books by authors like John Maxwell, Bill Hybels, and Howard Hendricks. The library also carries videos and computer software to help train students in leadership. These are great resources to help train students who are new to ministry. These resources are available anytime at the Ministry Resource Library.

For information about Community Ministries or Heart2Heart, contact Anna Craycraft or visit the Christian Ministries office. For past issues, look online at <http://www.cedarville.edu/christianministries/h2h>.

MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES

The Riding Centre is still looking for students to help with therapeutic horseback riding lessons weekday mornings, especially Wednesdays & Fridays (10-11:30am). This is not a highly time consuming ministry, and there are still quite a few spots to fill on the team, so if you're interested in this ministry, contact team leader Kelly Elshoff.

Grace Community Church needs one guy to help out on Tuesday night with AWANA. Contact student leader Drew Brown for more details.

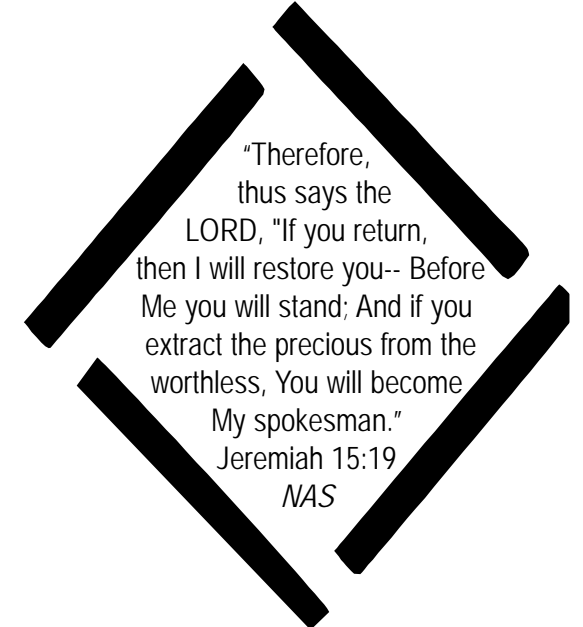

The Nehemiah Chapel in Dayton is looking for a guitar player to help lead Sunday morning worship. For more information, contact team leader Becky Lescure.

Outlook Pointe in Xenia needs someone to help lead their Sunday service two or three Sundays a month. This service reaches senior citizens for the most part, and can include prayer, Bible study, group discussion, and music.

Featured Resource:

Leadership Resources

This month the featured ministry resources from the Christian Ministries Resource Library are the selection of leadership tools available to borrow. These tools include books by authors like John Maxwell, Bill Hybels, and Howard Hendricks. The library also carries videos and computer software to help train students in leadership. These are great resources to help train students who are new to ministry. These resources are available anytime at the Ministry Resource Library.

For information about Community Ministries or Heart2Heart, contact Anna Craycraft or visit the Christian Ministries office. For past issues, look online at <http://www.cedarville.edu/christianministries/h2h>.