

2

HEART

SPOTLIGHT ON: Wright State

HEART

VOLUME 16, ISSUE 12

DECEMBER 3, 2004

For the next two issues of Heart2Heart, we are spotlighting two different outreach ministries on campus. There are six different outreach ministries sponsored through Community Ministries, and each has a unique mission behind it. These ministries involve everything from working at Dayton Gospel Mission to ministering to nearby college campuses. The goal of these ministries is to reach an unsaved world for Christ, whether it be through serving families in need or through approaching a stranger with the Gospel. This week, we are focusing on the Wright State University Evangelism ministry, led by Matt Lewellyn.

The purpose of this ministry, according to Matt is to "come alongside our brothers and sisters at WSU to encourage and mentor them by teaching and by example." This ministry involves a Bible study, called Crosswalk, meant to encourage and build up WSU students. Cedarville students also spend time in evangelism on the Wright State campus.

The biggest struggle for Matt's team is the apathy they find at Wright State. This seems to be a problem with a lot of college-aged Christians. According to Matt, his team has to guard against apathy on their part as well as try to encourage Wright State students who struggle with it. However, this team definitely enjoys the ministry, and according to Matt, they find time to have fun as they fellowship with other believers.

"WE DESIRE TO COME ALONGSIDE OUR BROTHERS AND SISTERS AT WSU TO ENCOURAGE AND MENTOR THEM."
MATT LEWELLYN

What this team needs right now are simply more workers to help with the growing Crosswalk Bible study. This study is led by Cedarville students, and these student leaders would appreciate your prayers as they search for wisdom in how to best mentor their peers at Wright State.

This ministry meets upstairs in Chuck's at 5:00 p.m. Thursday nights. If you are interested in joining this ministry, contact Matt Lewellyn for more details.

2

HEART

SPOTLIGHT ON: Wright State

HEART

VOLUME 16, ISSUE 12

DECEMBER 3, 2004

For the next two issues of Heart2Heart, we are spotlighting two different outreach ministries on campus. There are six different outreach ministries sponsored through Community Ministries, and each has a unique mission behind it. These ministries involve everything from working at Dayton Gospel Mission to ministering to nearby college campuses. The goal of these ministries is to reach an unsaved world for Christ, whether it be through serving families in need or through approaching a stranger with the Gospel. This week, we are focusing on the Wright State University Evangelism ministry, led by Matt Lewellyn.

The purpose of this ministry, according to Matt is to "come alongside our brothers and sisters at WSU to encourage and mentor them by teaching and by example." This ministry involves a Bible study, called Crosswalk, meant to encourage and build up WSU students. Cedarville students also spend time in evangelism on the Wright State campus.

The biggest struggle for Matt's team is the apathy they find at Wright State. This seems to be a problem with a lot of college-aged Christians. According to Matt, his team has to guard against apathy on their part as well as try to encourage Wright State students who struggle with it. However, this team definitely enjoys the ministry, and according to Matt, they find time to have fun as they fellowship with other believers.

"WE DESIRE TO COME ALONGSIDE OUR BROTHERS AND SISTERS AT WSU TO ENCOURAGE AND MENTOR THEM."
MATT LEWELLYN

What this team needs right now are simply more workers to help with the growing Crosswalk Bible study. This study is led by Cedarville students and these student leaders would appreciate your prayers as they search for wisdom in how to best mentor their peers at Wright State.

This ministry meets upstairs in Chuck's at 5:00 p.m. Thursday nights. If you are interested in joining this ministry, contact Matt Lewellyn for more details.

MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES

Madison Senior Living Community in London, OH, is looking for volunteers to begin a music ministry, puppet ministry, or Bible study. Any interaction at all would be welcome. Contact Mary Richey at 740-845-0145.

The Greene County Jail ministry needs male volunteers. Contact Elizabeth Hartman for more information.

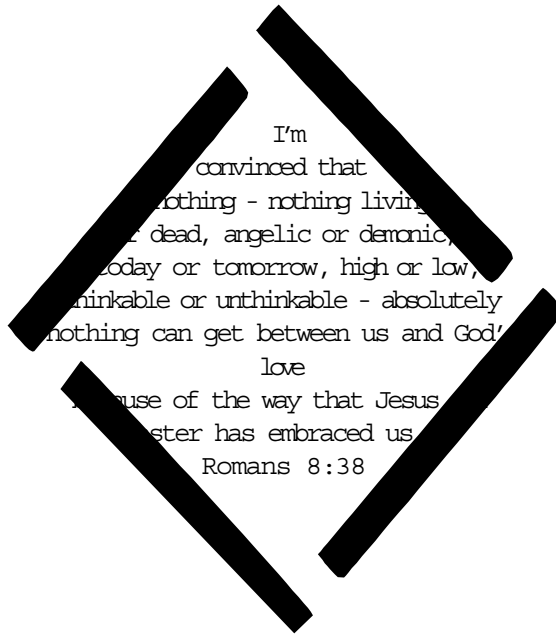

Cedar Cliff Elementary School is once again sponsoring a "Giving Tree" to help provide gifts for local children in need. Contact Angie Curlette, 766-3811, for more information on how you can minister to children in our community.

The Miami Valley Women's Center in Xenia needs volunteers to help with their client Christmas party. Contact Laura Shuneson for more information.

Featured Resource:

World Religion Resources

This month the featured resources will come from the world religion section found in the Christian Ministries Resource Library. This section is a good source of knowledge for those interested in learning more about different cults and religions around the world. There are several resources involving Mormonism as well as topics like Chinese intellectualism. Stop by the Resource Library to check out one of these ministry tools today!

If you have any questions about Community Ministries or Heart2Heart,

MINISTRY OPPORTUNITIES

Madison Senior Living Community in London, OH, is looking for volunteers to begin a music ministry, puppet ministry, or Bible study. Any interaction at all would be welcome. Contact Mary Richey at 740-845-0145.

The Greene County Jail ministry needs male volunteers. Contact Elizabeth Hartman for more information.

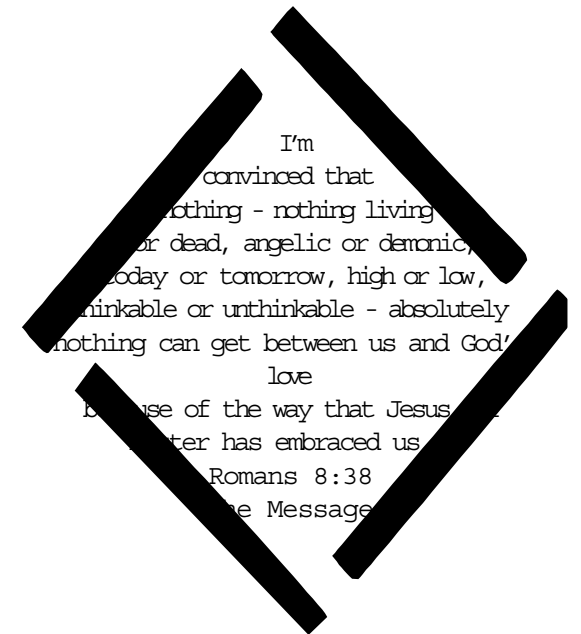

Cedar Cliff Elementary School is sponsoring a "Giving Tree" to help provide gifts for local children in need. Contact Angie Curlette, 766-3811, for more information on how you can minister to children in our community.

The Miami Valley Women's Center in Xenia needs volunteers to help with their client Christmas party. Contact Laura Shuneson for more information.

Featured Resource:

World Religion Resources

This month the featured resources will come from the world religion section found in the Christian Ministries Resource Library. This section is a good source of knowledge for those interested in learning more about different cults and religions around the world. There are several resources involving Mormonism as well as topics like Chinese intellectualism. Stop by the Resource Library to check out one of these ministry tools today!

If you have any questions about Community Ministries or Heart2Heart,