

Curriculum Materials Center Interest Group (CMCIG)

Planting Seeds for Professional Growth

2006 Spring Workshop

Friday, May 19, 2005 – 8:30 am to 3:30 pm
150 Milner Hall and Centennial Library
Cedarville University

Workshop Program

8:30 – 9:00 Library and 150 Milner	Registration and Continental Breakfast Join us for tasty fruit and veggie pizzas.
9:00 – 9:15	Welcome Greg Martin, Curriculum Materials Center Librarian Lynn Brock, Centennial Library Director
9:15 – 10:15	Eileen Armour and Nancy Cheney Making Your Life Easier with BWI! Eileen and Nancy will demonstrate how using TitleTales, a free database, to search, select, and order materials online can benefit Curriculum Materials Center librarians. Time will be allowed for questions.
10:15 – 10:30	Break
10:30 – 11:30	Sara Bushong, Bowling Green State University Promoting Information Literacy through WebQuests
11:30 – 12:15 Centennial Library	Tour of Curriculum Materials Center
12:15 – 1:15	Lunch
1:15 – 2:15 150 Milner	Debra Mallonee, Cedarville University NCATE Technology Requirements Deb will explain NCATE's increased expectations in the area of information technology, and will discuss how CMCs and library personnel can help meet these expectations. Time will be allotted for questions.
2:15 – 2:30	Break
2:30 – 3:00	Gary Lare, University of Cincinnati EBSS: Curriculum Materials Centers Collection Development Policy Manual
3:00 – 3:30	CMCIG Business Meeting and Open Discussion Greg Martin and Diane Schrecker, co-chairs <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Fall conference planning• CMCIG blog• Open discussion
3:30 – 3:45	Workshop Evaluations <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Please complete a workshop evaluation before leaving• Don't forget your ALAO freebie!