THREE LIBRARY FACULTY SUCCESSFULLY COMPLETE UNIVERSITY FACULTY REVIEWS

Lynne Funtik, Senior Reference Librarian, Susan Winn, Reference Librarian, and Greg Martin, Curriculum Materials Center Librarian, have successfully completed their faculty reviews as part of the new University non-tenure faculty review program. During the 2004/2005 academic year, they were involved in preparing detailed professional portfolios, participating in evaluative interviews, and were the subjects of review reports. The portfolio and recommendations were submitted to the Academic Vice President, who reviewed the materials and rendered a decision. As a result Greg, Lynne, and Susan were extended a multi-year employment commitment by the University.

LIBRARY FACULTY MEMBER COMPLETES SECOND MASTERS DEGREE

Greg Martin, Curriculum Materials Center Librarian, has completed his Master of Library and Information Science program at Kent State University. Greg, who already holds a Master's degree in music education from Wright State University, as well as State of Ohio certification in K-12 educational media, chose to embark on achieving a second master's degree in 2003, after beginning work at the Centennial Library, in order to further develop his background and skills in library and information science. Prior to coming to Cedarville University in 2002, Greg served for 15 years as the Librarian and Media Specialist at Central Junior High School in Xenia, Ohio.

NEW STAFF JOIN THE LIBRARY

Since the beginning of summer, the Library has welcomed two new staff members. Laura LeMaster joined the staff in June as the new Serials Technical Assistant in the Collection Services Department. In early September, Josh Heinrich joined the AV Services staff as an AV Services Technician, replacing Joe Blakey, who along with his wife accepted a year-long short-term missions teaching opportunity in Mexico.

CENTER FOR TEACHING AND LEARNING SPONSORS PHOTOSHOP SEMINAR

Sponsored by the University Center for Teaching and Learning, the University will host Adobe® Photoshop® guru Ben Willmore for a 3-Day Photoshop® Seminar "Beyond the Basics" Thursday, October 20 through Saturday, October 22.

Whether you are a photographer, video editor, graphic designer, teacher, student, or hobbyist, this three-day seminar will help you move beyond the basics to a higher level of Photoshop® understanding. Unlike the quick tip seminars prevalent today, Willmore's seminar offers an in-depth look at how Photoshop® really operates. You'll not only learn Photoshop®'s most essential features; you'll develop the deep understanding needed to eliminate your frustrations and produce the highest quality images possible.

To date, Willmore has personally taught more than 45,000 Photoshop® users on three continents. His breakthrough teaching style of "not-just-how-but-why" has made him the in-house instructor of choice for companies such as Mercedes-Benz, Adobe® Systems, America Online, the U.S. Air Force, LexisNexis, and Fisher-Price Toys. His award-winning, best-selling book Adobe® Photoshop® Studio Techniques has been called one of the best Photoshop® books ever written. He is co-author (with Jack Davis) of another best-seller, How to Wow: Photoshop® for Photographers, as well as Up to Speed: Photoshop® CS2.

The conference will be held in the Stevens Student Center each day from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Registration includes Willmore's newly released book Adobe® Photoshop® CS2 Studio Techniques (a $50 value), refreshments, daily lunches, and prizes. Tickets start at $270. For more information or to register, visit www.cedarville.edu/photoshop.

WHAT'S NEW Library Resource and Service Updates

ANOTHER RARE BIBLE ADDED TO THE BIBLE HERITAGE COLLECTION

A recent opportunity to purchase another rare English Bible has provided additional breadth to the early English Bibles well represented in the Centennial Library Bible Heritage Collection. A quarto version of the Rheims New Testament, a first edition published in 1582, has been added to the collection. By the 1580's, the Roman Catholic Church had lost the battle to suppress English language translations of the Bible.

Thus, the Church of Rome determined that they would at least have their own official Roman Catholic English translation. Using the Latin Vulgate as a source text, the Rheims New Testament was published in 1582. Because it was translated at the Roman Catholic College in the city of Rheims, France, it was known by that name. The Roman Catholic English Old Testament, called the Douai, because it was translated at the Roman Catholic College in the city of Douai, France, was completed in 1609. The combined project is now commonly referred to as the Rheims-Douai Version.

LIBRARY FACILITY UPGRADES CONTINUE WITH THE ADDITION OF NEW CASUAL FURNITURE

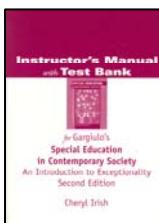

The fiberglass casual furniture, a fixture in the Centennial Library since its construction in 1987, is now a thing of the past. Those units have been replaced throughout the Library with comfortable individual seating, some with tablet arm inserts to accommodate laptop computers. In addition, several round group study tables have been placed in the casual reading area at the entrance to the Library. We hope to soon add a plasma screen television to this area to accommodate news and special events on a regular basis, similar to what is available in the Student Center.

The addition of this new casual furniture completes the current project of upgrading the Library facility begun in 2002. This project has involved upgrading restrooms, replacing most of the carpeting, replacing selected furniture, re-configuring the reference area, re-painting a number of public and office areas, expanding network and electrical service, adding public access computers, and providing e-mail "e-check" stations.

UNIVERSITY FACULTY IN PRINT Recognizing Faculty Scholarship

Cheryl Irish, Associate Professor of Education
Instructor's Manual with Test Bank for Gargiulo's Special Education in Contemporary Society.
Belmont, CA: Thomson Wadsworth, 2006. 265 pages

The information in this instructor's manual has been designed as a guide to effectively present the content of Gargiulo's book. For each chapter, a number of components are provided, including an outline, key terms, chapter summaries, discussion questions, student activities and projects, and a test bank. In addition, a variety of instructional resources are also cited, including videos, books, films, CD-Roms, journals, and websites.

Carrying the Torch to Their World

Arnold G. Fruchtenbaum (Class of 1968)
The Messianic Jewish Epistles: Exposition from a Messianic Jewish Perspective.
Tustin, CA: Ariel Ministries, 2005. 478 pages

This first in the Ariel's Bible Commentary series seeks to provide a commentary on the five epistles in the New Testament written to Jewish believers dealing with issues specific to their experiences. This commentary on Hebrews, James, I and II Peter, and Jude focuses on two major problems facing the first century Messianic Jewish community, persecution and false doctrine. Fruchtenbaum, a Messianic Jewish believer and the writer of eight previous books and commentaries on Hebrew Christianity, is the founder and director of Ariel Ministries, which is dedicated to the evangelism of Jewish people and the discipleship of Jewish and Gentile believers from a Messianic Jewish frame of reference.

Reviewing Library Policies and Operational Issues

LIBRARY HOURS EXPANDED

In response to student input about Library service hours and the availability of resources to respond, the Centennial Library hours on Monday through Thursday have been extended to 11:30 p.m. for the 2005/2006 academic year. As long as the Library is able to respond to changes in student regulations, the current policy for Library hours during the Fall and Spring semesters is for the Library to close one-half hour before student curfew on Monday through Thursday. With these additional hours, the Library is now open 87.25 hours per week.

LIBRARY FALL BREAK HOURS

The following are the public hours for the Centennial Library for the Fall break. Please plan your schedules accordingly.

Fall Break:

October 19	Close at 5:00 p.m.
October 20-21	8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m.
October 22	Closed
