

Summer Studies Student Guide

June 9–23, 2018

Welcome to the 'Ville!

Pamela Johnson

Dean of Undergraduate Studies

Welcome to Summer Studies, the summer residential program offered to Cedarville's College Now students!

You have made a very wise decision to spend two weeks of your summer with us. Here you will experience Cedarville University's commitment to academic excellence and spiritual growth in community with fellow believers, many who just may become friends for life!

We pray God's best for you as you join us for Summer Studies 2018!

Mindy May

Director for Student Development and Dean of Women

The Office for Student Development and Residence Life are excited you have decided to join the Cedarville family. We hope the next couple of weeks provide an easy transition to college life and an introduction to the overall Cedarville experience.

This booklet provides an overview of the Summer Studies and services that will be available to you this summer. The information in these pages will help you better prepare for your time at Cedarville!

There are four core values that drive everything we do at Cedarville University: Love for God, Love for Others, Integrity in Conduct, and Excellence in Effort. We pray these core values will be modeled for you and sharpened in you in each class, chapel, residence hall experience, and activity on our campus this summer.

We look forward to serving you!

Commuter and Residential Students

Cedarville Covenant

"We are a community of believers accountable to one another, called to reflect the character of Jesus Christ, and to be obedient to His Word. We will be faithful in our support for the local church and in our practice of the spiritual disciplines. We will practice biblical principles of encouragement, exhortation, and reconciliation. We commit ourselves to integrity, kindness, purity, and self-control; and to continual growth in scholarship, leadership, and service.

Therefore, as members of the Cedarville community, we regularly affirm our commitment to the Cedarville Covenant with this pledge: We will love God and others, live with integrity, and pursue excellence in all we do."

Read through our Core Values to learn more.

Devotion

Every weekday morning at 10 a.m. students will meet for devotions. Student Life and Christian Ministries staff will lead devotional studies that are biblically driven and practically relevant. Attendance is required for all Summer Studies students.

Clothing

Class dress for men includes dress shirts, sport shirts, sweatshirts, or T-shirts and pants or jeans (no shorts). Class dress for women includes dresses, blouses, sweatshirts, or T-shirts and skirts, slacks, capris, or jeans (no shorts). Clothing should not be excessively short or revealing (for example, skirts/dresses should be to the top of the knee, midriff and underwear should not show, and shirts should not be low-cut and should have at least a modest strap.) Shoes should be worn in academic buildings and the dining hall at all times.

All students will go canoeing on Sunday afternoon, June 10. Students should wear an outfit they don't mind getting wet. Most students wear a tank top/shirt and shorts. Girls' swimsuits should be one piece. Shoes/sandals will get wet.

Dress for the gym and free time must adhere to the student life guidelines listed below:

- Clothing should not be excessively short or revealing. For example, skirts/dresses should be to the top of the knee, midriff and underwear should not show, leggings/tights should have knee-length skirt or dress over top, and shirts should not be low-cut and should have at least a modest strap.

- Students wearing spandex for exercise should have loose-fitting shorts overtop. Racerback shirts are not allowed.
- Clothing should not have slogans that are inconsistent with University values.
- Shoes should be worn in academic buildings, chapel, and the dining hall at all times.
- Shorts, sweatpants, and pajama pants should not be worn to class or chapel.
- Hairstyles and fashion should avoid extremes. Clothing should be gender appropriate.
- Facial jewelry (other than earrings and nose studs) is prohibited.
- Other than in the residence halls, shirts should be worn everywhere on campus, including the Callan Athletic Center.
- Students are expected to remove hats before entering class or chapel.

In addition, our campus culture supports the professional development of students and allows faculty to communicate additional dress guidelines for classes that are consistent with the course objectives.

Student Life Guidelines

The Cedarville University Summer Studies program is a unique experience. Summer Studies students can maximize their experience by committing to all academic, spiritual, and social opportunities that are part of the program. Therefore, in addition to being responsible for the information covered in the student handbook, Summer Studies students are expected to abide by the following policies:

- Students may not have cars on campus during the Summer Studies program unless commuting from home for class.
- Residential students may not leave campus unless with a parent or the Summer Studies program staff (except to visit Cedarville Village Market, Dollar General, and Mom & Dad's Dairy Bar).
- Residential students are required to attend all the activities of the Summer Studies program, including church services at Grace Baptist Church in Cedarville.
- Commuter students are required to attend all activities during class times including daily chapel. They are encouraged to participate in social activities and will be provided with details for each activity during the Commuter Student Meeting. Commuters are welcome to join the group for Sunday church services as well.
- Residential students are not permitted to work during the Summer Studies program.

Technology

Computer labs for student use are available in multiple locations on campus. Black and white laser printers are available in computer labs, CedarPrint stations, the library, and most classrooms. Color printing is also available at a few locations. Each registered student is provided with a print quota. Additional print quota information is available at cedarville.edu/printquota. The University has the technical ability and legal authority to monitor access to on-campus and off-campus websites. The University may conduct reviews of network activity at its discretion. Although Internet access is filtered, students should always exercise discretion when going online. Before using campus computers and other network resources, please read the Acceptable Use Policy for CedarNet at cedarville.edu/acceptableuse. Use of Cedarville University computer or network resources implies agreement to these policies.

Technology at the 'Ville Student Session

Technology at the 'Ville is required for all residential and commuter students and is scheduled for 3– 3:30 and 3:30– 4 p.m. on check-in day. Exceptions will be made for any student who attended Summer Studies last year. These sessions are designed to introduce students to Cedarville-specific software and technology. You will learn helpful hints regarding email, computer use guidelines, and connecting your personal computer or other mobile device to CedarNet, our campus network. Students must have their Cedarville username and password to participate in this session. Students who cannot remember their login credentials should contact Information Technology at 937-766-7905 or TechHelp@cedarville.edu before coming to campus for check-in.

Login Problems

Students experiencing difficulties with their username and/or password while attending Summer Studies should stop by Information Technology in the Tyler Digital Communication Center (TYL), Room 122, between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday; email TechHelp@cedarville.edu; or call 937-766-7905 for assistance. Information Technology is closed from 12–1 p.m. for lunch.

Personal Computer Connection Assistance

While computer labs are available on campus, residence hall rooms are not equipped with computers and printers. If you have a laptop or other mobile device, you are encouraged to bring it for Summer Studies and connect to the cu-secure wireless network. Go to the Information Technology Help pages for information on connecting to CU-Secure. If you need additional assistance, you can schedule an appointment with a TechStop computer technician by submitting an online request at cedarville.edu/itr. Answers to common computer connection questions can be found by using a University computer to access the TechStop website at cedarville.edu/techstop.

Summer Computer Lab

The primary summer open-access computer lab is located in the Center for Biblical and Theological Studies, Room 111. Additional open-access computers are available in the Centennial Library and the lower level of the Stevens Student Center, Room 103. Lab hours can be found at cedarville.edu/computerlab.

Disability Services

Disability Services determines reasonable accommodations and auxiliary aids for qualified students with disabilities, thereby affording equal opportunity for participation in University programs and services. If you believe you may need accommodations because of the impact of a diagnosed disability, please visit cedarville.edu/disabilities for more information and to submit the electronic application. In order for Disability Services staff to process requests in a timely manner, applications are requested two weeks prior to arriving on campus for academic accommodations and at least four weeks prior to arriving on campus for auxiliary aids or housing accommodations.

Personal Safety

Campus Safety staff are on duty 24 hours a day and can be reached at 937-239-6491 from off campus or 999 from any campus phone. Campus Safety is located in the Stevens Student Center next to the main information desk. For more information, visit cedarville.edu/campussafety.

Residential Students

Church

On Sunday, June 10 and 17, Summer Studies residential students will attend Grace Baptist Church as a group in Cedarville.

Housing

The men will reside in Lawlor Hall and the women will reside in Printy Hall. Each air-conditioned room houses two students and is furnished with two beds, two desks and chairs, and a dresser. Beds may be bunked or unbunked. Rooms must be returned to their original condition upon check-out. Learn more about residence halls by visiting cedarville.edu/virtualtour.

Meals

Dinner on Saturday, June 9, will be provided for students.

The Summer Studies program fee provides three all-you-can-eat meals Monday through Friday, brunch and dinner on Saturday, and lunch and dinner on Sunday. The first contract meal is breakfast on Sunday morning, June 10; the last contract meal is dinner on Friday, June 22. Students will be responsible to pay for their own meal and any snacks purchased outside of contract meals.

Students may bring mini refrigerators to store food in their rooms (3 cu. ft. max). Microwave ovens are also permitted (750 watts max).

Laundry

Each residence hall has a laundry room, and use of washers and dryers is free. You should bring laundry detergent and dryer sheets.

Health

Cedarville University Medical Services is closed during the summer months.

You can view a listing of local health providers at cedarville.edu/localhealth.

Students should bring their insurance cards with them.

Spending Money

All meals are included. Plan to bring $50–$100 in spending money for snacks and other items. Note paper, pens, and miscellaneous school supplies are not included in the program fee.

Personal Items and Snacks

Cedarville Village Market, a small grocery store, and Mom & Dad's Dairy Bar are located just across the street from the University. In addition, nearby Colonial Pizza (colonialpizzacedarville.com or 937-766-5779) will deliver to the residence halls.

Phones

Students are encouraged to bring a cell phone and charger. Land lines are not available during Summer Studies. Students who do not have cell phones can use Google Chat, FaceTime (if they have an Apple product), or Skype (if their personal computer has a web camera).

Fitness Recreation Center

The Fitness Recreation Center is available to residential summer school students; you must have your student ID card to enter. For more information about Cedarville's recreational facilities and their hours of operation, please visit cedarville.edu/recenter.

Traveling by Air

Transportation to/from campus will be provided from Columbus International Airport only on June 9. If you need transportation from the Columbus airport, please register at this link to reserve a space. Anticipated pick-up time at the airport is 11 a.m. on Saturday, June 9. Please plan your flight accordingly.

Planning Your Departure

You should plan to depart by noon on Saturday, June 23. Transportation to Columbus International Airport will be provided on Saturday, June 23, leaving campus at 10:00 a.m. Flights should be scheduled for 1:30 p.m. or later. Register for your transportation from campus to the Columbus airport.
