STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

- You must complete all application forms accurately and submit them on time to the right place.
- You must provide correct information. In most instances, misreporting information on financial aid application forms is a violation of law and may be considered a criminal offense which could result in indictment under the U.S. Criminal Code.
- You must return all additional documentation, verification, corrections, and/or new information requested by either the Financial Aid Office or the agency to which you submitted your application.
- You are responsible for reading and understanding all forms that you are asked to sign and for keeping copies of them.
- You must accept responsibility for all agreements that you sign.
- You must perform the work upon which you agreed in accepting a university employment award.
- You must be aware of and comply with the deadlines for application or reapplication for aid.
- You should be aware of your school's refund procedures.

All schools must provide information to prospective students about the school's programs and performance. You should consider this information carefully before deciding to attend a school.

SUMMER HOUSING INFORMATION

RESIDENCE HALLS

Residence hall housing for graduate students is available during the summer course schedule. University housing and meals are available with single-occupancy rooms. Each room is air conditioned, fully furnished (desk, bed, chair, dresser) and equipped with a phone, permitting students to dial and receive calls directly. Every residence hall room is equipped with a modern networked computer and ink jet printer (printer cartridges available in the University bookstore), enabling residents to take full advantage of the vast information resources of CedarNet, the University's award-winning network. Meals for graduate students may be purchased at the school cafeteria at staff rates.

Graduate students living in the residence halls should plan to arrive from 3-5 p.m. or from 8:30 – 9:30 p.m. on the Sunday before their class begins. Students unable to arrive during these designated times, should contact the Student Services Office to make arrangements for a special arrival time.

Housing assignments are made by the Student Services Office. Contact Kirsten Gibbs, Associate Dean of Students, at 937-766-7872 with any questions pertaining to housing.
