Office of the Registrar
251 N. Main St.
Cedarville, OH 45314
Note:

1. The registration deadline is July 27, 2015. Students are registered on a first-come, first-served basis. All classes have caps that we cannot exceed.

2. Before students can be registered, they must electronically sign the Financial Responsibility Agreement. Contact program advisers for more information.

3. In accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), Cedarville University is committed to protecting the privacy rights of students attending the University. This includes minors enrolled in College Now courses.

4. FERPA laws cover two separate areas: financial information and academic information.
   a. College Now students may consent to release financial information to another individual by completing a Financial Information Request Form and returning it to the Cashiers Office. Visit cedarville.edu/cashiers to download the form.
   b. College Now students wishing to permit University personnel to discuss academic records with parents or legal guardians must complete and submit to the Office of the Registrar a waiver of their right to privacy. This waiver, signed by the student, will grant release of academic records to specific individuals for specific purposes within limited periods of time. Waiver forms must be requested in writing by the student to registrar@cedarville.edu, and new waiver forms must be submitted each semester. Visit cedarville.edu/FERPA for more information.
