Cedarville, OH 45314

Note:

1. The registration deadline for on-campus courses beginning May 5 is April 28. The registration deadline for online courses beginning May 26 is May 11. Students are registered on a first-come, first-served basis. All classes have caps that cannot be exceeded.

2. Before students can be registered, they must electronically sign the Financial Responsibility Agreement. Contact program advisors for more information.
3. In accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA), Cedarville University is committed to protecting the rights of students attending the University. This includes minors enrolled in College Now courses.

4. FERPA laws cover two separate areas: financial information and academic information.

a. CN students may consent to release financial information to another individual by completing a Financial Information Request Form and returning it to the Cashiers Office. Visit cedarville.edu/cashiers to download the form.

b. CN students wishing to permit University personnel to discuss academic records with parents or guardians must complete and submit to the Office of the Registrar a waiver of their right to privacy. This waiver, signed by the student, will grant release of academic records to specific individuals for specific purposes within limited periods of time. Waiver forms must be requested in writing by the CN student to registrar@cedarville.edu, and new waiver forms must be submitted each semester. Visit cedarville.edu/FERPA for more information.
